To prevent or detect fraud we may check your details with credit reference and fraud prevention agencies and databases. We may pass your information to those agencies for their records. If false or inaccurate information is provided and fraud is identified, details will be passed to fraud prevention agencies to prevent future fraud.

Further details of how we use credit reference and fraud prevention agencies can be obtained by writing to: Underwriting Director, Tempcover Ltd, 2nd Floor Admiral House, Harlington Way, Fleet, Hampshire, GU51 4BB.

IMPORTANT NOTES

Failure to disclose all material information (i.e. information likely to influence the assessment of this risk) could invalidate the insurance and/or result in a claim not being paid. If you are in any doubt whether any information is material it should be disclosed. If you are satisfied that, to the best of your knowledge and belief, the above particulars are true and correct you need take no further action. Please let us know immediately of any amendments and we will then advise you of any change in premium or terms and conditions that may result from amendments you make and send you a revised statement of facts.

No liability is undertaken until the risk is accepted by the insurer and the premium paid. We reserve the right to decline any insurance or to change the premium and terms quoted. This is an important document. Please keep it in a safe place along with your Policy Document and Certificate of Insurance. You should keep a record (including copies of letters) of all information supplied to us for the purpose of entering into this insurance.

Insurers pass information to the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register, run by Insurance Database Services Ltd (IDS Ltd) and the Motor Insurance Anti Fraud and Theft Register, run by the Association of British Insurers (ABI). The aim is to help us check information provided and also prevent fraudulent claims. When we deal with your request for insurance, we may search these registers. Under the conditions of your policy, you must tell us about any incident (such as an accident or theft), which may or may not give rise to a claim. When you tell us about an incident, we will pass information relating to it to the registers. Your insurance cover details will be added to the Motor Insurance Database, run by the Motor Insurers Information Centre (MIIC). This has been set up to help identify uninsured drivers, and may be searched by the Police to help confirm who is insured to drive. If there is an accident, the Database may be used by Insurers, MIIC and the Motor Insurers Bureau to identify relevant policy information. You can ask for more information about this. Some or all of the information we supply will be held on computer and may be passed to other insurers, brokers or agents. You should show this notice to anyone insured to drive the vehicle covered under the policy.

In assessing your application we may search the files of licensed credit reference agencies. They may keep a record of the search on their files. We may pass to licensed credit reference agencies, details of your payment record with us. Credit agency data is used by businesses to assess applications for insurance, banking, loans, hire facilities and debt collection purposes.

Please note that this insurance does not cover loss or damage arising from theft when the ignition keys are left in or on the car. Details of other exclusions are contained in the policy document.

Under the Data Protection Act 1998, you are entitled to a copy of your personal data held by us upon written request and payment of a fee. If the details are incorrect then you can ask us to amend them.
